Sunday Mass Obligation

Important Update from the Archdiocese of Toronto

On March 13, 2020, Cardinal Collins issued a communication to the faithful of this archdiocese indicating that it was necessary to cancel public celebrations of the Eucharist on the coming Sunday, stating: "For this weekend and any other which may be required, I grant the faithful dispensation from their Sunday obligation".

Given that most of the health and safety restrictions in our parishes are no longer in place and the faithful are able to attend the celebration of the Eucharist once again, the basis for the dispensation from the Sunday obligation has dissipated and is no longer in effect.

The Church does not obligate people to do the impossible. If individuals, based on their conscience, cannot attend Mass for a grave reason, including a great vulnerability to COVID-19 or because they are self-isolating to limit the spread of illness, then they are excused from their Sunday obligation, as the law of the Church allows.

After two years of COVID-19 restrictions, many have been deprived of the opportunity to attend Mass and to receive the most Holy Eucharist and all of us have missed the opportunity to experience community, including members of our parishes. As we celebrate Pentecost this weekend, we invite and encourage the faithful to return to the practice of attending Mass in-person.

Rema, Rita, and Bernadette

My name is Shana Abraham and I am currently in Grade 12 at Father Henry Carr C.S.S. I'm writing to let you know about an exciting endeavour that I hope to be a part of this summer! I am required to fundraise a portion of my salary and am hoping that through sharing what it's all about, you will be willing to support me financially.

In Canada, abortion kills 100,000 children every year and is legal up to 9 months of pregnancy. Recently, I felt called to think deeply about the pro-life movement and to become a part of it and started working with an organization called Toronto Right to Life and was encouraged to do more to change hearts and minds about abortion by exposing the reality of it.

This summer I will be joining the Canadian Centre for Bioethical Reform as a part of their summer internship program. CCBR is a pro-life organization whose focus is to educate the public about the tragedy of abortion, its physical and emotional consequences, and how it violates human rights. I will be working with the team in Toronto and will receive training in pro-life apologetics, strategy, and leadership and how to apply these things by engaging the public with the truth about abortion through CCBR's outreach projects.

Dear parishioners, I am appealing for your help. As a summer intern, I am required to raise $4,000 by July 4th for my needs throughout the summer. Any amount is most appreciated, and will certainly go a long way. As I transition from high school to university, I hope you will partner with me to make this summer one that is impactful and share in the value of life that God has placed on every human from the womb and beyond. If you are not able to donate at this time, your prayers are greatly appreciated.

Ways to Donate

1. Certified cheque payable to the Canadian Centre for Bio-Ethical Reform for Shana Abraham.
2. Cash donations brought to the church entrance at weekend masses this weekend and next.

WHAT IS CCBR?

The Canadian Centre for Bio-ethical reform (CCBR) is a pro-life organization whose focus is to educate the public about the tragedy of abortion, its physical and emotional consequences, and how it violates human rights.

"CCBR believes that it is self-evident that human beings, by virtue of their humanity, are objectively valuable and deserving of human rights."

This weekend is ShareLife Sunday

Let's show we care on ShareLife Sunday

This weekend is the final ShareLife Sunday of the year. But ShareLife is more than a collection. It's how we as a community say "we care." In solidarity with Catholics throughout the Archdiocese, we provide a witness of God's love by actively supporting those in need locally and the greater world.

The COVID-19 pandemic has taught us so much about the needs of our community and our brothers and sisters. We each have a role to play, be it through financial support, prayer or both.

Our goal this year is $50,000. To date we have achieved $19,602. If you have not done so, please give generously during the special collection or you can contribute to ShareLife online via the parish website or at sharelife.org.

Monthly Pre-Authorized Giving is a convenient way to spread your ShareLife contribution throughout the year. You can learn more about PAG by visiting our website at
