My Body

Prayer for Life

"This is My Body, given up for you." Lord Jesus, we hear Your words each day at Mass. You have used these words to teach us the meaning of Your love for us, a love that brought You to the cross to give Your life so we might live. You use these words also to teach us the meaning of our love for one another, a love which leads us to give ourselves away that others might live.

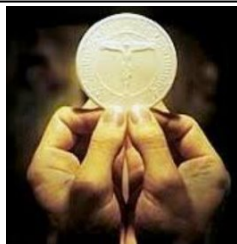

"This is my body." Lord, we also hear these words used by those who think they can take life, just because that life is growing within their body. We hear these words distorted by those who support abortion.

Grant that we may learn that human fulfillment is never found by pushing someone else out of the way, but only and always by moving ourselves out of the way. May we live our lives according to Your most sacred words,

"This is my body, given up for you!"

Celebrating St. Benedict

July 11th marks our parish's patronal celebration of St. Benedict. The Benedictine life can be traced back to Pachomius from the fourth century, who living simply as a monk in the desert while reflecting on scripture, became a spiritual master and subsequently lived with a community of monks in a monastery. Later, when Benedict of Nursia founded the Benedictine religious order during the sixth century, they grounded their lives in the practices of silence and listening so that they could grow in their relationship with the world. When these practices are exercised over the course of a lifetime, the result is an ongoing conversion to model the likeness of Christ.
