Welcome to St. Benedict!

There are two new Salesians among us.

Have you seen them yet?

When you do, take a moment to say hello.

Br. Kevin White is a Salesian of Don Bosco in formation for the Salesian priesthood. He is from Glen Rock, New Jersey, USA and attended Don Bosco Preparatory High School, a Salesian high school in New Jersey. That is where he met the Salesians and came to know St. John Bosco. He has spent the last two years in Marrero, Louisiana at Archbishop Shaw High School as a theology teacher and beach volleyball coach. This year, Br. Kevin is assigned to St. Benedict parish where he will be active in Youth Ministry including our parish schools.

Sr. April Cabaccang has been a Salesian Sister for 8 years, and made her First Profession of vows right here at St. Benedict Church. Before becoming a sister, she attended a Salesian Parish in Surrey, BC. Following the footsteps of St. John Bosco, Sr. April firmly believes that "it is not enough to love the young. They must know that they are loved." She loves to accompany young people to help them discover that God wants them to be happy in this life and in the next. She loves hiking, music, calligraphy and Lord of the Rings. She finds God the most in the Eucharist, Scripture and nature. She is serving as the Vocations Director of the Salesian Sisters in Canada. Sr. April lives with her community in the neighbourhood. Ask her anything you'd like to know about being a Salesian Sister!
